

St. Catherine's Court

Editor: John Henry Fowler

Lyrics: William Draper (1855 - 1933)
from Üttingen manuscript, 1754

Richard Strutt
(1848 - 1927)

Revision: (1 - 3 - 2008)

1: In our day of thanks - giv - ing one psalm let us of - fer for the saints who be -
2: In the mor - ning of life, at the noon, at the ev - en, He___ called them a -
3: These_ stones that have ech - oed their prais - es are ho - ly, and___ dear is the 4: Sing__ praise then for all who here sought and here found him, whose__ jour - ney is

6
- fore us have found their re - ward; When the sha - dow of death fell up -
- way from our wor - ship be - low; But___ not till his love at the ground where their feet have once trod; Yet___ here they con - fessed they were end - ed, whose per - ils are past; They be - lieved in the Light; and its 11

- on them, we sor - rowed, but___ now we re - jice that they rest___ in___ the Lord.
font and the alt - ar, had___ girt them with grace for the way___ they___ should go.
stran - gers and pil - grims, and___ still they were seek - ing the city_____ of God.
glo - ry is round them, where___ clouds of earth's sor - row are lift - ed_____ at last.

Words: William H. Draper, 1894. Draper wrote this hymn for the reopening of the Abbey Church, Shrewsbury, England, after its restoration.

Hymn Tune: Richard Strutt; written for the Jubilee Celebration of the Girls' Friendly Society, 1925, and first published in their Jubilee Hymn Book that year